

Remote Working

Task 1 [4 Points]

Working remotely, such as from home, has become more prevalent with the growth of technology. Two technologies that have been key in allowing this are Virtual Private Networks and Remote Desktop software. Below, describe one benefit and one drawback of using VPNs.

+

-

Task 2 [4 Points]

As mentioned, an important technology for remote working is Remote Desktop Technologies. Explain what remote desktop technologies are and describe below one benefit and one drawback of this tool.

+

-

Task 3 [12 Points]

Haleema runs a small financial investment business. She allows for flexible working amongst her team of employees, including allowing for them to work from home on certain days. However, there are a lot of confidential files that she would like her staff to access from home. She is considering using remote desktop technologies for this. In the table below, consider how the factors listed could affect her decision on whether to use this tool.

Factor	Explanation
Security
Cost
Ease of Use
Features
Connectivity

